

November 23, 2018 in Rostov-on-Don, a meeting was held with representatives of the analytical community with a visit to the production facilities of PJSC "MRSK Yuga". The meeting was attended by representatives of the largest investment companies — Holding Company "Uralsib", PJSC "IK Russ-invest" and Sova Capital Ltd. The meeting was also held with the participation of representatives of the main stockholder of the Company — PJSC "Rosseti". Top managers of "MRSK Yuga" demonstrated to analysts the investment potential of the Company. The meeting continued with acquaintance with the results of the investment programme implementation, with the programs of innovative development and modernization of power grid facilities of "MRSK Yuga", plans for transition to digital substations and active digital adaptive networks with distributed intelligent automation and control systems, the use of new technologies and approaches to the integrated efficiency of business processes automation control systems.

During the meeting, representatives of the investment community visited the Network Management Center and the substation 110 kV "Sportivnaya".

Analysts expressed a desire to hold the next meeting in 2019 after the implementation of the announced plans.